MARSHAL'S THROAT CUT

Sardis Was the Scene of Great Excitement on Last Saturday Night When W. S. Dyens Cuts Throat of H. L. Kelley.

A great deal of excitement was had in the town of Sardis in the southwestern portion of this county on last Saturday night, when Mr. H. L. Kelley, the marshal of the village, was wounded by W. S. Dyens.

According to a report received at this office Mr. Kelley was standing on the sidewalk in the town talking to another gentleman. Dyens, who was a stranger in the place, came out of a store and addressed a remark to Kelley who answered him. Dyens did not like the answer he received pulling a knife from his pocket made a stab at Kelley. The latter's throat was cut.

Dyens immediately escaped from the town and although a warrant has been secured for his arrest he has not been found up to the present time. He was a total stranger in the town and had been drinking. He was with several other men who assisted in his escape.

Mr. Kelley's condition is not thought to be serious although he was cut in a very dangerous place. The officer had done nothing to incur the enmity of Dyens as far as we could learn. If the fugitive is caught he will probably get a very stiff sentence.

MR. HENRY RUDY DEAD

A long-distance telephone message last evening to Mrs. J. H. Richardson conveyed the sad news of the sudden death by heart disease of Henry Rudy at his home in Covington yesterday at 12:30 p. m. Mr. Rudy was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Newton C. Rudy who resided on East Forest avenue and was about 47 years of age. Until his removal to Covington he was a valued employe of the old Collins, Rudy Lumber Co. of this city. His wife who was Miss Minnie Childers, a daughter of the late Rev. W. H. Childers, survives him, also two sons, George and Newton. He leaves four sisters and one brother, Mrs. Alvin Wallingford of Detroit, Mrs. D. H. Sears of Cincinnati, Mrs. J. D. Burrows, and Mrs. Thomas Morris of Covington, and Mr. Lane Rudy of Cincinnati. Besides these he leaves a host of relatives in this city. The funeral will occur Thursday afternoon at his late home.

MR. H. SAM TRUE DIES

Mr. H. Sam True of Dover died in a hospital at Louisville on yesterday. Mr. True was one of the most prominent men of this county and was a citizen of Maysville for some time.

DEATH SUMMONS

Comes Rather Quickly to Hon. G. W. Adair, the Oldest Member of the Mason County Bar Association—Was a Lawyer for 35 Years.

Hon. G. W. Adair died at his home on West Second street yesterday at 12:10 p. m. after a very short illness. His death was due to congestion of the lungs. Mr. Adair had been in failing health for some time although never confined to his bed. On last Friday night he was taken sick but on Saturday morning he went to his office on Market street but soon returned home, he feeling unable to get about. No fears were entertained over his condition until late Sunday night when it was seen that the end was near.

George Washington Adair was born at Lewisburg in this county, September 29, 1844. He was the son of William and Sarah Adair and was a descendant of John Adair, who was governor of Kentucky from 1820 to 1824. When he was about 4 years old his parents removed with him to Lewis county where he lived until he had reached manhood. At the age of 25 he went to Mt. Olivet and began to teach school, later teaching in Murphysville in this county.

In 1881 he began the practice of law in this city, studying under the late Henry Wadsworth. From 1893 to 1896 he held the office of County Attorney. Since that time he had lived in this city where he had a very large practice. Not only in this city and county but in the surrounding section of the country he was known as an able lawyer and as one of his many friends characterized him upon hearing of his death, "He knew his law."

He was married on February 21, 1871, to Miss Sallie Paul, daughter of the late John Paul of Dover, who was one of the pioneer families of this county. To them were born five children, four of whom survive. They are Mrs. Maude Farnsworth of Pascagoula, Miss, Mr. John P. Adair of Chicago, Mr. Asa Adair of Covington, Ky., and Mr. Robert Adair of this city. He leaves no brothers or sisters, being the last of five children.

He was the oldest member of the Mason County Bar Association, both in the number of years and practice.

Mr. Adair was one of the most sociable men in this city and was a great lover of the young people. He always had a pleasant word for everyone and was characterized by his sunny disposition and kind and welcome words for all. He had a very appreciative eye for the beautiful things in nature and this was shown by his many short poems that were printed from time to time. His writings were simple and contained a beautiful lyrical strain, which made them very distinctive.

Mr. Adair was a man whose friends could almost be counted by the number of his acquaintances. His pleasing personality readily made friends for him and he rarely forgot one that he had met. He was a kind and affectionate husband and father and was a great lover of his home.

The funeral arrangements have not been made awaiting the arrival of his daughter, who will reach this city tonight. The announcement of this will be made in tomorrow's Ledger, although at press time it was thought that the service would be held at 2 o'clock from the home tomorrow afternoon.

SPLENDID FEAST OF MUSIC

It is with genuine pleasure that the Ledger gives space to the Harbeson concert at the High School auditorium last evening. It was a very bad night so that many who would have gone were prevented. To the scores and hundreds that were there a most charming evening was enjoyed. There were three artists heard, Mr. Harbeson, tenor, his sister, Miss Harbeson, soprano, and Miss Florence Barbour at the piano. The program was all too short. Mr. Harbeson has a pure lyrical tenor voice just such a one as we see pictured as lovers of old, sympathetic, sweet descriptive, powerful. Miss Harbeson is as graceful and charming in manner as the Lord has rightly endowed her with a rich soprano voice. Her stage presence is an inspiration and as she soars through the musical scale her hearers are transported to realms of bliss. Miss Barbour at the piano was the splendid foundation for the artists and she played with rare ability. The program was given under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher Association of the First District School and that organization realized quite a neat sum of money.

In remembering your relatives and friends for 1917—The Daily Public Ledger—would prove a most acceptable gift, start with the New Year.

ROSS HELD TO GRAND JURY

And His Bond Placed at $300 in the Examining Trial Before Judge Whitaker Yesterday Afternoon For Assaulting Ladies.

In Police Court yesterday afternoon Robert W. Ross of Orangeburg was given an examining trial before Judge Whitaker for assault and battery. After hearing the testimony the judge held him over to the March term of the Grand Jury and his bond placed at $300.

Ross was charged with having assaulted Mrs. James Ireland and her daughter, Miss Ada, on West Second street on Sunday night. On the witness stand Mrs. Ireland said that on the night in question she and her daughter had been up street and were returning home. When in front of the First-Standard Bank building Ross was standing there and he began to follow them. After passing the Robinson Boarding house below Sutton street Ross walked around them and darted into January alley. When the ladies reached this point he stepped from the alley and struck Miss Ada she being knocked to the ground. The ladies began to scream and soon several men came to their aid, Policeman William Throckmorton being in the lead.

Officer Throckmorton followed the man down the alley to Front street and there captured him. He was taken to jail.

Ross said on the stand that he was entirely unaware of what was taking place and that he did not remember at all the circumstances of the assault. He said that he was drunk at the time and the last thing he remembered until he was captured by the officer was getting in his buggy at his home near Orangeburg. Ross has a very good reputation in his neighborhood and this was the first time he had ever been in the clutches of the law.

HEAVY SHOWERS NOT SUFFICIENT TO CLEAN THOROUGH. FARES COMPLETELY

Maysville's official face was washed—though not clean—for the first time in many days, yesterday. Rain which fell heavily late yesterday afternoon and all of last night stood in the streets and removed a great deal of the snow, the ice and the grime, which, for several days, had marred the up-turned countenance of the city and has afforded many a jolt to slippery-footed citizens.

It was the first heavy rain since the series of snows began two weeks ago. It fell faster than it could be taken care of for the time. Accompanying it were small calibre lightning flashes which were seen also later at night in the northwest part of the sky.

AFTER THE WAR

The population of Bridgeport, Conn., was about 100,000 before the war. Today it is 160,000. Bridgeport is one of the great munition centers, which accounts for this 60 per cent increase in population. This addition of 60,000 munition makers to the Bridgeport population means wonderful opportunity for Bridgeport merchants to sell their goods, and the Connecticut farmers to dispose of their products. Therein lies their share of our war order prosperity.

But what is the logical consequence of a cessation of the European war? Bridgeport munition-making activities will practically cease, and many thousands of operatives will be laid off. Shortly thereafter, if the Wilson-Underwood tariff law is to be continued, the Bridgeport manufacturers will encounter the severe competition of an industrially reorganized Europe—very large industry of our European competitors receiving the backing of its government. This must of necessity curtail the operations of the Bridgeport manufacturers, and curtailed operations mean a higher cost of production. A mill operating at 75 per cent capacity can produce nowhere near as cheaply as a mill running at 100 per cent capacity. Finally the wheels will cease to turn and the laborers employed even in normal periods under a protective policy, will be laid off under the present near-free-trade policy. The Bridgeport merchants will be unable to turn over their stocks with profit, and the Connecticut farmers will no longer find Bridgeport a profitable market for their produce.

And the condition which the Democratic tariff law will create in Bridgeport is typical of what may be expected throughout the country under the Democratic tariff policy.

A FARMER ON TARIFF COMMISSION

The National Grange was in session in Washington recently transacting business and discussing plans for the promotion of the organization throughout the United States. One action taken was the adoption of a resolution asking the President to appoint a practical farmer on the tariff commission. The Grangers made it perfectly plain that they do not care for the appointment of a book farmer or paper-farmer as their representative. They want a man on the commission who owns and operates a farm and knows by personal experience the problems the farmer must meet.

ONE DEAD, FOUR WOUNDED IN GIRL ORPHANED AS HER FATHER DIES IN BARN

Danville, Ky., December 25—William Benedict, Sr., was shot and instantly killed, four other persons were wounded in a gun fight at the Christmas tree celebration of the Harris Creek School, near the Lincoln-Casey County line, eight miles south of Danville, today.

The injured were George Thornton, shot in leg; William Benedict, Jr., son of the dead man, shot in ankle; Bourbon Galloway, son of Marion Galloway, shot in right arm, and Mike Gaddis, shot in leg.

The school children had gathered at the school house for their annual Christmas tree celebration, given by Miss Minell Prewitt, of Moreland, teacher. The building was packed with children and visitors.

A disturbance was created by Thomas Thornton, who, it is alleged, had been drinking. When Benedict rose and asked that order be restored, it is said that George Thornton, a brother of Thomas, left the building and returned with a revolver. A general shooting followed and five bullets took effect in Benedict's body.

It is not known who fired the first shot. People ducked between the seats, fell to the floor, and jumped through the windows and doors to escape the bullets and a number received cuts and bruises in escaping.

All the participants had been on good terms previously as neighbors and there had been no bad blood between any of them so far as could be determined.

OBERAMMERGAU'S CHRIST LOOKS TO U. S. FOR PEACE

Oberammergau, December 25—This is a sad Christmas for Oberammergau, the little Bavarian town made famous by its Passion Play.

Anton Lang, the world's famous peasant, who plays the part of Christ, regards the future darkly, unless America shall bring back to the world that peace and good will now well-nigh lost in the bitterness of the greatest war.

"My Christmas message to America," he said, "is my fervent hope that she will do something to bring about peace. I hope and pray the peace of which Christ preached—'peace on earth, good will to men'—will be brought to Europe through America."

"It would be the finest Christmas gift to the world."

Lang is a medium-sized man, a wood carver, with a long beard. He is slightly bald and has blue eyes, with features that typify the conception of Christ. When I talked to him he wore the uniform of the Red Cross.

"As long as people are selfish and unsatisfied, though they have everything, and until they follow Christ's example, then there will be war," Lang declared. "I see another spring of fighting, with blood flowing like a swollen mountain stream."

Through the window of Lang's modest cottage the snow-covered roofs of adjacent houses and mountains were visible. Every feature made one think of the Bethlehem of ages ago.

BOY KILLED BY SISTER, PLAYING WITH PISTOL

Georgetown, Ky., December 25—John Thomas Allen, a boy of seven, whose father is a tenant on the Kirtley Shropshire farm was instantly killed Monday by his half-sister, Rosa Belle Brack, aged 17, while playing with an old pistol.

The revolver had been empty and it is thought the lad put in the cartridge which caused his death.

Nicholasville, Ky., December 25—Matilda May is only 15 years old, but her thin shoulders are bowed with the miseries of a bleak life.

This morning her father, Samuel May, went out to celebrate Christmas. Tonight she is an orphan.

May staggered into a store and his noisy hilarity disturbed several others. So, they wrapped him up and laid him in a barn to "sleep it off."

When they went after him, a few hours later, he was dead.

Matilda was huddled beside the corpse tonight, wondering what was to become of her. They will hold an inquest tomorrow.

NEW REVOLUTION NIPPED

San Antonio, Texas, December 25—Authorities believe they have nipped in the bud a new Mexican revolutionary attempt here in the arrest of five members of a gang of Mexicans who terrorized this section of Texas last summer. The men were taken into custody as a direct result of the killing of W. A. Slocum, near here. He came to San Antonio recently from New York and was a merchant. Sheriff Tobin and his deputies made the arrests.

EAST TRAIN DERAILED AS IT CRASHES OVER MAN

Danville, Ky., December 25—Q. & C. Royal Palm train, leaving Lexington at 9:20 o'clock this morning, was derailed about ten miles south of Danville today. An investigation of the cause of the accident resulted in the discovery of the body of Virgil Gooch, a farmer, 35 years old, ground to pieces on the track. It is believed that the train struck him before leaving the track. None of the passengers was injured.

LONDON PULPIT ABUSES WILSON

Wrong Note Sent "In Fit of Mental Aberration," Dean of Westminster Charges—Ridicule Employed—President's Suggestions Referred to as "Black and Vile."

London, December 25—The dean of Westminster, the Rt. Rev. Herbert Edward Ryle, preaching in the Abbey today said:

"It is our resolve, God helping us, to overthrow military brigandage in Europe, to rescue the liberties and homes of the desolate countries, to obtain for these people reparation for their wrong, and for humanity lasting security against a recurrence of aggressive violence of crime."

"It is true that the President of the United States, after two years of study of the question and innumerable notes, seems to believe that the objects of the two groups of belligerents is the same. He knows that Germany refused arbitration, declined a conference and rejected every overture to prevent war. He knows that his own countrymen have poured money like water to assist the destitute and outraged remnants of the little Belgian people, whose treaty rights were violated and whose frontiers were invaded before war was declared. He knows of the infractions of The Hague conventions which the American people have studiously promoted."

"He knows all the details of the organized atrocities reported upon its strict inquiries. He knows of the sinking of unarmed passenger ships like the Lusitania and Arabia without protest or warning. He knows of the murder of Captain Fryatt, of the nocturnal deportation of Belgians and French into slavery. He knows of German connivance of Armenian massacres and this evil demoniac of national militarism, have the same aim in view as the perpetrators of these historic crimes."

"President Wilson has either in a fit of mental aberration sent the wrong note or he has entirely misapprehended the European situation."

"These things are black and vile. The very thought of them on Christmas day makes one shudder. Does anyone suppose that peace would be honorable which regarded the assailants and defenders of humanity as having in view the same end? What kind of unity of aim could you expect between wolf and sheep dogs over the carcasses of torn lambs?"

"Peace on the basis of such hypothesis would be only an armistice given an exhausted foe, a much-needed interval for recuperation before renewing his insatiable passion for the hegemony of the world and the destruction of his rival with a savage war."

EDUCATION ATTAINED BY STUDENT LABOR AT BERE A COLLEGE

Berea, Ky., December 25—Student labor as a means toward securing an education in the past year has attained record proportions in Berea College, according to the report of Treasurer Thomas J. Osborne. Of the 1,668 students enrolled at Berea, considerably more than half earned a large part of their expenses by student labor. The total sum earned in this manner was more than $40,000, exclusive of vacation earnings, which is $8,000 more than in any previous year.

Both boys and girls participated in the work, and some of the more novel sources of revenue included laundry work, janitor service in the school buildings, printing, woodwork and waiting on table. Farming was the most popular form of student labor, waiting in third in the number enrolled and janitor service, woodwork and laundering ranked next.

Although student labor has enabled this large number of boys and girls from the southern mountain country to secure an education, President Frost expresses regret that the college is not in a position to give greater aid. He says that in the past year they were able to give only $3,461 for student aid, although about $7,000 was distributed as student loans, no single gift or loan amounting to more than $40. Berea probably is the least expensive school in the country, the expenses, excluding clothing, amounting to only $100 a year. The enrollment last year numbered 1,110 men and 557 women.

Clamps easily attached to any bedstead have been invented to keep the coverings from being pulled away from a sleeper's feet.

SIGNALS OF DISTRESS

Maysville People Should Know How to Read and Heed Them.

Disordered kidneys give many signals of distress. The secretions may be dark, contain sediment. Passages are sometimes frequent, scanty, painful. Backache is often present day and night.

Headaches and dizzy spells may occur. Weakened kidneys should receive quick help. Don't delay! Use a special kidney remedy. Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys, backache and urinary disorders. Maysville evidence proves their worth.

J. A. Burns, retired farmer, 707 E. Third St., Maysville, says: "About four years ago, I suffered from an attack of kidney trouble. My back was very weak and lame and the kidney secretions passed too frequently, especially at night and I was compelled to arise several times on that account. I had often heard and read about Doan's Kidney Pills and got a box at Wood & Son's Drug Store. They helped me and I continued taking them until entirely cured of kidney trouble."

Mr. Burns is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. THE SEASON'S GREETINGS

As we are about to pass into a new year, we wish to extend our thanks and greetings of the holiday season to our many friends everywhere. We have always tried to do our part in seeing that our business was conducted in the proper way to merit the confidence of the people of Mason and surrounding counties, and that we have succeeded is attested to by the large volume of business which we handle and by the many satisfied customers who appreciate Traxel "service" and Traxel "quality."

Again we say, "Greetings."

A Suggestion TO Tobacco Growers

Nothing, in our opinion, is so liable to seriously effect the present satisfactory prices of Tobacco as the over crowding of the market.

Our advice to you is, bring each wagon load to market just as soon as you get it ready. Don't delay until you get your whole crop, or the most of it stripped. To do so will be a mistake.

A steady market is always better than a glutted one. Don't get too much here at once. As our house is the largest, we are helped most by a rush; but, we know that what is not good for you is not, in the long run, good for us.

We Are For What Helps Everybody Most

That is the reason we so carefully sort and handle each crop of Tobacco before offering it for sale.

Bring each load, as soon as ready, to the

HOME

And you will go home satisfied, for we will make it bring you the TOP OF THE MARKET.

CHRISTMAS TREE

At the City Mission on Monday Night For the Sunday School of That Organization Was a Great Success.

The poor of this city certainly had their share of the Christmas joys this year and certainly there was no excuse for an empty stocking of any child whose parents were unable to see Santa Claus. And even following the Christmas morning the good times continued for the unfortunate ones, as the City Mission gave a Christmas tree to the Sunday School within that organization.

The Mission home was brilliantly lighted on Christmas night and the tree certainly was well decorated and looked very beautiful. At an early hour the members of the Sunday School began to assemble in the Mission and at the time set almost 200 people were in the room. A delightful program was carried out by the members of the Sunday School and others. Miss Cornelia Jones, teacher of elocution in this city, gave a splendid reading before the audience.

Following the program a treat was given to the members of the Sunday School, candy and nuts and small gifts for the younger members of the Sunday School. A total of 150 persons received a treat and 100 were given the gifts.

The entertainment was made a success through the efforts of the City Mission Superintendent, Mrs. Cora E. Peddicord. Mrs. Peddicord has been very successful in handling the work of the Mission and has proven time and again that she is entirely in harmony with the work. Her work has always been for the good of the Mission and especially her labors at this Christmas time have done much toward alleviating suffering among the poor of the city.

"THE OLD WILLOW TREE"

Last Poem Written by the Late G. W. Adair Telling of His Final Visit to His Old Childhood Home.

It waves in loftiness close by the door
Where my little lips lipped their accents of yore,
Where my little brother played and a mother's hand bound
The wreath on his forehead that loved to be crowned.
It stands in its pride by moss verdured well
Where the rainbow-hued water drops musically fell
While the accents of childhood's dispassionate glee
Rang up through the leaves of that old willow tree.

It spread its broad branches far out over the spot
Which saw us assembled each eve in our cot,
Where the eyes of affection devotedly met
And kind words were spoken, I ne'er can forget
'Neath its sheltering arms in the soft summer air
Rose softly and sweetly our voices in prayer,
And hushed as a breeze over a calm summer sea
Rose our words through the leaves of the old willow tree.

I saw my sweet sister go forth in her pride,
Her beautiful cheek bore the blush of a bride;
Her eyes bright with pleasure her rosy lips smiled
As a mother's fond blessing there hallowed her child.
I saw that lip sadden, that eye drop a tear
As the parting from home and its loved drew near,
But the birds and the branches with voices of glee
Filled with music the leaves of the old willow tree.

I saw my brave brother become a proud man
Of a lofty purpose and insolent plan;
I saw him launch forth on the waves of the world
Like a steed from the parent tree ruthlessly hurled;
I saw him borne back all his high hopes at rest
With the pulseless young heart that lay cold in his breast.
I remember his last words were spoken to me
'Neath the listening leaves of the old willow tree.

I next left the spot with my brow overcast
And the joys of my childhood forever gone past,
I had learned there to know that this world can not give
Those pleasures for which we all labor and live.
With quivering lips thence I wandered away
Lips too mournful to smile, too despairing to pray,
But I bore in my bosom far away from the lea
Some dew-laden leaves from the old willow tree.

Long years have gone by since I bid adieu
'Neath its shade to the fond friends my young heart knew—
Years sweeping their changes across the hearth stone
Where my good mother lingered awhile alone.
How warm was their blessing, how thick were their tears
As I clung to them fondly the last time for years,
And feel in my soul they are waiting for me
'Neath the whispering leaves of the old willow tree.

WATCH NIGHT

Union Service of the Third Street M. E. Church and the First M. E. Church, South, Will Be Held in the Former Place of Worship on Next Sunday.

The Commissioners representing the two great branches of Methodism who are to meet on Thursday the 28th, at the First Methodist Episcopal Church, in the city of Baltimore, to discuss the great problem of organic union of all Methodist churches, has sent out an appeal for all Methodist churches to observe Sunday, the 31st, with special services, and that where ever possible joint Watch Night services be held with the two churches uniting. The days that these Commissioners are in session will be momentous ones for the cause of Methodism and the Christian religion, therefore the call is for prayer that the divided church may again be united.

Revs. W. B. Campbell and S. K. Hunt, pastors respectively of the First M. E. Church, South, and the Third Street M. E. Church, had planned to hold such a service in the First M. E. Church, South, but as Rev. Campbell will be absent from the city next Sunday, Rev. Hunt and the Official Board of the Third Street Church have arranged to hold such a service. They cordially invite especially the members of the Southern church to unite and have a part in this service. It is hoped that every member of the two churches will be present in this service. Much can be accomplished by coming together in prayer. While the program has not been completed, the following will be the order of the services:

The Epworth League will hold its service from 7:30 till 8:30 with Mr. Frank Nash as leader. The topic for this service is "Beginning All Over Again."

From 8:30 till 10 a church service will be held at which Rev. Hunt will preach on "The Spirit of Methodism." From 10 till 10:30 the congregation will hold a social period in the Sunday school room.

From 10:30 till 11 refreshments will be served.

From 11 till 11:30 two short addresses will be given, one on "The Inefficiency of a Divided Church;" the other on "The Advantages to be Gained from Organic Union."

At 11:30 the congregation will reassemble in the main auditorium for an old-fashioned Love Feast such as used to be frequent in Methodist church. The closing moments of the Old Year will be used for a service of consecration.

While this service will be of social interest to all Methodists, all members of other churches and the public in general are cordially invited to attend. No better place could be found in which to see the Old Year out.

THINK THIS OVER

You will always find that the wide-awake, progressive business man, the one who succeeds, is a believer in advertising. Look over the business section of this city and see if this is not true, and Maysville is no exception to this rule.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.
